We Mend Broken bones with Rainbows and Penguins

In 2005 we had a dream. It was to build the most impressive, fully resourced state of the art children's hospital in the UK. By 2009 it will exist. Brand-new and purpose built it will have amazing specialist facilities, a spectacular location, stunning resources and enviable potential. The home of clinical excellence and innovative research, it will be the place to be and attract the very best talent around. So if you've ever dreamt of working in a magical kingdom of care, you can, because we're building it. You just have to join us and believe...
